DuPont employee and a retired longtime volunteer firefighter, passed away on September 13 of COPD, chronic lung disease.

Brownie was a 1960 graduate of Gloucester City High School where he played end on the football team and also was on the track team. He worked at E.I. DuPont's Deepwater, facility for 35 years as a pipefitter, retiring in 1998. He also served as a volunteer firefighter in Gloucester City with the Highland Park Volunteer Fire Company #3 and the Ambulance Squad for 35 years. For many of those years, he served as the engine company's chief.

"Irv Brown, a man of many names: 'Irv,' 'Irvin,' 'Brownie,' 'Brown,' and one of my favorites, 'Swerving Irvin,'" said lifelong friend Gary Marcucci, "I am proud to be one of those Irv used to include in what he called 'The Castle Crowd' and I hope we will all have an opportunity to visit there one day. We have many mementos that sprung from his talent with stained glass. It will help to always keep him in our thoughts. Oh, one more name for Irv Brown - friend!"

Marcucci's wife Phyllis said, "I didn't meet Irv until after he and Charlotte were married and they invited Gary and I to dinner at their house. I remember being so nervous at the beginning of the evening and so comfortable and made welcome at the end of it. That's how Irv always made me feel; welcome and comfortable in his company."

Bill Tourtual, who graduated with Brown recalled, "Irv, was the type of person who was always there to help you no matter what you asked, and that's what I will miss. I lost another great friend and a very generous man."

"Fifty three years ago we had to choose a Best Man for our wedding. We would guess this could become a difficult choice for some. Lucky for us we had a dear friend, a beloved cousin and the best person that we knew for this responsibility." said Bob Straub. His wife Lillian added, "Irv will always be our 'Best Man.'"
