ROBERT “BOB” OSCARSON (November 28)

Robert “Bob” Brian Oscarson, 67, passed gently early Thursday morning, November 14, 2013, in Mt. Holly, in the embrace of his sister Sigrid and brother-in-law Bill Wares. A Military Chaplain presided at his bedside. He was the son of Bertil “Bill” and Harriett Oscarson, both deceased.

Bob was born in Syracuse, NY on July 22, 1946 and at a young age moved with his family to Vernon and then Brattleboro, Vt. His family moved for his last year of high school to Eagle Bridge, NY and it was there that he graduated from Cambridge High School. Bob’s hobbies included assembling model airplanes, ships and tanks. He was a life-long history expert on World War II and the Civil War devouring books and movies to increase his knowledge. In his younger years he enjoyed skiing and was an accomplished drummer entertaining friends and family with his extraordinary abilities.

Bob enlisted in the Navy on May 23, 1967. He served proudly as Seaman Apprentice along with his dog Jet and was part of a 35-man Dog Patrol at the Naval Support Activity, Danang, Vietnam. In addition, he was stationed in Charlestown, SC on the USS Hunley.

One of his most cherished duties onboard was to serve as an Assistant to the Chaplain. He attended Security Policeman School and Sentry Dog Handlers School. During his service in the Navy he received the National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, Combat Action Ribbon and Meritorious Unit Citation.

Bob was a painter and home repairman. He lived and worked in various places throughout his life including Manchester, Vt, New York City, Chatham, NJ, and Nantucket, MA. He spent his last 10 years in Gloucester City, NJ where he worked alongside his brother-in-law Bill Wares at Jersey Central Insurance. Bob remained very active with Veterans all his life, notably with the Nantucket American Legion and the Gloucester City VFW where his most recent official duty was Chaplain. These organizations became his life-blood and they relied on Bob as much as he relied on them for support. He would take hunting trips with his special buddies every fall on Nantucket. He will be sadly missed this year.

Bob cherished his 3 children and 5 grandchildren. His first marriage was to Barbara (Grady) Scholm with whom he had 2 children: Brian Oscarson (Carolyn) of Rockmart, GA and Siri Shields [husband Robert] of Mashpee, MA. Brian has 3 children, Trevor, Niles and Amelia. Siri has 2 children, Hannah and Caroline. Bob’s daughter, Emily from Cincinnati was from his marriage to Heidi Rutledge.

Bob had one brother, Craig Oscarson [wife Sally] of Quakertown, NJ, sisters Andrea Pence and Kim Oscarson of Marysville, CA, and sister Sigrid Wares [husband Bill] of Moorestown, NJ. Beloved nieces and nephews include: Amy, Chiara, Ingrid, Seth, Sigrid, and Siiri.

A Memorial Service in Bob’s memory was held at the Gloucester City VFW on November 19th. He donated his body to The Gift of Life. Bob was a friend to all he met and he will be missed. Contributions in his memory may be made to the following organization[s]:

Townsend C. Young VFW Post 3620, 27 North Burlington Street, Gloucester City, NJ 08030

DORIS MAY WHITMAN (November 28)

Funeral Mass was held at Emmaus Catholic Community, Mt. Ephraim for Doris May Whitman (nee Herman), 84, of Mt. Ephraim who passed away peacefully surrounded by her family, on November 23, 2013, forty days after the passing of her beloved husband of 66 years, Charles Aloysius Whitman.

Loving mother to Bill (Connie), Mike (Sue), Chick (Bernadette), Mark (Jan), Paul (Eileen), Jim (Dawn), John (Beth), To (Larissa), and Dori (Bruce Rodgers). She is also survived by 34 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren, and many wonderful nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by one sister Peggy (Bill) Schemel and brothers Butch, Bob (Mary), and Ron (Joanne). She is also survived by sisters-in-law Rosemary (Chris) Kittel and Dolores Livecchi.

Doris grew up in Mt. Ephraim, and attended Audubon High School. She married Charles in 1947, and quickly made the house that Charles built into a home for their growing family. In addition to caring for her nine children, she worked for the Courier Post as Branch Manager, organizing paper routes for Mt. Ephraim's devoted team of paper carriers. Upon retirement, Doris and Charles enjoyed several years of world travel.

Doris was an active member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, where they were married and where they baptized all nine of their children. Doris was known for her kind heart; she never spoke ill of others, and found the good in every person she met. She was also known for her exceptional organizational skills, and knew the birthdays and anniversaries of every one of her children and grandchildren. When family members came to visit, they always knew they could count on Grandmom for a warm embrace, a cookie or two, and excellent life advice.

Doris's greatest joy came from being wife to Charles, and their love story is without equal. Doris was a wonderful woman who put others before herself and spread love everywhere she went.
