Josephine Talla Remembered by VFW Comrades

By: Chris Concannon

As rain clouds moved into Bellmawr/Runnemede area, the late Josephine Talla was laid to rest at New St. Mary's Cemetery in Bellmawr on August 26.

The former Josephine Battaglia was remembered by family, friends and loved ones, including several members of her VFW.

During Mrs. Talla's funeral services, Crescent Park (Bellmawr) VFW Post 9563, led by Commander Joe Lee, presented her family with a commemorative Bible, set in a fine dark walnut shadow box.

Several members of the Post attended the services, including representatives from both the Ladies and Men's Auxiliaries.

Talla was very active throughout her life in the Bellmawr community, offering her time with the public school system, as well as a long-time stint with 9563's Ladies Auxiliary, serving as President.

For many years, "Jo" as she was better known as, also took time to assist Bellmawr voters at countless election polls.

In testimony to the type of person her mother was, her daughter briefly remarked that "she loved the VFW".

The thanks of a grateful community go to Josephine Talla, for her lifelong dedication and service to Bellmawr. God speed, Jo.
