EDWARD J. COLEMAN IV (Jan. 10th)

Funeral services were held for our beloved Eddie who passed away at only 23 on December 29, 2018. While Eddie's death was unexpected, he suffered from an opioid addiction, and he died alone, without the people who loved him most nearby.

He is survived by his mother, Nicole Przybyszewski and her husband Kevin, two brothers Jake up and Colin Blalock, and a little sister Mia. He is also survived by Charlie Blaylock Jr., his grandparents Paul and Cathy Darrell, Walt and Bernadette Smith, and Bridget and Joe Rossi, Uncles Walter Smith and Michael Rodgers, Aunts Sarah Darrell, Rebecca Smith, Danielle, Tiffany and Jaime Coleman, Gina Rossi, Jennifer Seltzer, Khara Morse, Melanie Eller

Eddie was born on February 6, 1995. He grew up a smart, funny, talented kid in Gloucester City. Over the years Eddie had made some amazing friends through skateboarding and music. He loves spending time with them and everyone who met Eddie instantly loved him.

When Eddie was 16 he moved to Salem County. He always missed his hometown but he made some great friendships in Woodstown.

In March 2013, Eddie had a life-changing accident. He was hit by a drunk driver and almost lost his life that night. Although Eddie's recovery amazed us all, he had a hard time accepting it. His life would never be the same and he could never skateboard like could before. To him, it was devastating.

Sometime around late 2015 Eddie met a girl that was suffering from addiction. Although in the beginning, he says he was trying to help her overcome, at some point he was introduced to Percocet for his leg pain. From there it spiraled out of control. Since then it has been a struggle. Eddie went to rehab, but in August 2018 it became apparent how bad his addiction had to come when he went missing for nine days. After being found he agreed to detox and was in recovery. He was doing well. The day he went missing he was sober, he had plans with friends, and he was very much looking forward to that. The last known loved one to see him that day with his mom. With a smile and an I love you he was off and heading to meet his friends in Gloucester city. Somehow in that time, something changed his mind and he went missing again. After seven days he was found and our worlds were shattered.

Like so many other that fall victim to this, Eddie was a person with a huge heart and passion and was very loved. He was not just a junkie. He could play guitar, he could play the drums, he could write you some poetry, he could skateboard with the best of them and was getting into wood-burning. Eddie loves camping and went on many camping trips with his Nan and Pop-Paul.

Eddie's legacy will live on through his amazing friends Danielle Russo and her family who took him in as their own. His buddies Sam, Brandon, Emerson, Caleb and his cat Sherman. Eddie loved our dogs Pintail in Kona. Growing up there of so many people have been part of his life. Charlie Claire and his family, Erin Kain and her family, Austin Dobleman and his family, Tyler Murray, Will Tozer, Bob Shereer, Alexis Esworthy, and so many more.
